INVITATION

Dear Friends

The National Conference on “Role of Traditional Systems of Medicine in Healthcare Needs” is being organized by the Green Institute for Research and Development (A Registered Society), South Extension II, New Delhi, in association with the Centre of Excellence in Unani Medicine (Pharmacognosy and Pharmacology), School of Pharmaceutical Education and Research, Jamia Hamdard, New Delhi, on 16th October 2026 at Jamia Hamdard, New Delhi, India.

The conference aims to provide a multidisciplinary platform for deliberating on the role of traditional systems of medicine in addressing present and future healthcare challenges. It will focus on recent scientific advancements, evidence-based validation of traditional therapies, herbal drug research, integrative healthcare, phytopharmaceutical development, regulatory perspectives, and the translation of traditional knowledge into modern healthcare practices. Renowned experts from academia, research organizations, healthcare institutions, and the pharmaceutical industry will share their insights on strengthening traditional medicine through scientific innovation, quality assurance, and sustainable healthcare solutions.

On behalf of the organizing committee, we cordially invite researchers, academicians, healthcare professionals, industry experts, policymakers, scholars, and students to participate in this conference and contribute to meaningful discussions that will promote the integration of traditional systems of medicine into contemporary healthcare for the benefit of society.
